

BEIJING(Chinaoilweb):China's December crude runs fell 7.4% on year to around 27.2 million metric tons, equivalent to an average of around 6.4 million barrels a day, data from the National Bureau of Statistics showed Thursday.

Crude throughput was also lower than 27.27 million tons run through China's refineries in November.

The nation processed a total of 342.07 million tons of crude oil in 2008, up 3.7%.

Among specific products, the data showed diesel and gasoline output at 10.15 million tons and 5.75 million tons in December, down 9.5% and up 7.5% on year, respectively.
